Course Summary

Course Description	Creative & Discursive Writing 1 is designed for intermediate university-level academic writing for English learners. This course focuses on developing rhetoric and sentence structure in a straightforward manner, using a step-by-step approach, high-interest models, and varied practices. Students will be guided through the writing process to produce well-organized, adequately developed paragraphs. Explanations are simple, and numerous opportunities for practice help students assimilate each writing skill effectively.

Description Related Courses	The topics listed for each writing activity are only suggestions, and ultimately will be decided by you. Group prewriting and in-class writing of first drafts will be used, as I will be available for immediate consultation. Also, I will check to make sure everyone is on the right track. Pair and group collaboration is appropriate for prewriting and editing work; however, writing is essentially an individual task even when done in class.
Course Goals	The overall goal of this course is for students to produce academic-level writing through effective use of sentence structure, paragraph formation, and organization.
Projected Results	By the end of the semester, the students should be able to develop their writing through reasoning, creativity, and critical thinking in a clear and persuasive manner.
Percentage of the original language classes(%)	For the most part, this course will be taught completely in English. This class uses English as the medium of instruction (EMI), so it is expected that the students taking this class are fluent English speakers. I understand that for most of you, English is not your first language, so I will do my best to communicate in a clear manner. If you have any problem understanding me, don't hesitate to ask me to clarify anything that may be difficult for you to understand.
