Course Summary

Course Description	The purpose of this course, College Writing 2, is to develop essential communication skills intended for academic settings. This course is intended for students who possess an intermediate level or higher English skill proficiency. This course will be conducted fully in English and students will be expected to use English extensively in discussions and in their assignments and projects throughout the semester.

	College Writing 2 is designed to develop essential communication skills so that students will possess the ability to craft their ideas into a speech and articulate their ideas accurately and with confidence. The primary focus of this course is on developing and delivering successful presentations in academic and professional contexts. This course will help students to build foundational skills such as understanding the structure of a presentation and the process of effectively planning and delivering a presentation. To help students prepare a speech, this course will provide instruction on how to form a clear purpose, develop a topic through brainstorming, collaboration, and research, and applying logical organization. In addition, this course will instill skills indispensable to the successful delivery of a presentation, such as including visual aids, engaging with the audience, and considering verbal and nonverbal communication methods. Throughout this course, students will gain direct experience in developing their own topics, organizing, and delivering various presentations to an audience of their peers. By the end of the semester, students will be able to develop and present a unique and original speech in English.
