Course Summary

Course Description	This course is designed for foreign students who are either encountering Korean for the first time or have limited knowledge of the language (such as exchange students or students in English-medium programs). The aim of the course is to enhance students' understanding of the Korean language and help them develop basic communication skills in Korean. Students will study the fundamentals of Korean, including consonants and vowels, syllable formation, and basic sentence structures. Through practice in listening, speaking, reading, and writing, students will learn how to engage in conversations on simple everyday topics and understand and write basic Korean texts at an elementary level. This course is not suitable for students with an intermediate or higher proficiency in Korean. Enrolling in this course would likely result in a low grade, as the level of the course wo
